

2018 Art Comes Alive Exhibition AWARDS CEREMONY HIGHLIGHTS

ADC Fine Art, 310 Culvert St. Cincinnati, OH

ADC News, Fall 2018

adc fine art

Barbara Westfall, M.F.A. shown left receiving two awards for her art. Chasing the Spectrum and Turquoise Flora, made by Barbara from fused glass and metal, won awards at the ACA exhibit.

Art Comes Alive (ACA), IS an exhibition of contemporary art in the U.S. and Canada. Barbara's art was selected for the ACA exhibit by a 20-member jury out of over 2,000 entries.

The art exhibit and awards ceremony was held in October, 2018 and hosted by ADC Fine Art located at The Edge in Cincinnati, OH. Both of Barbara's works of art sold that evening. Turquoise Flora was purchased by the University of Kentucky Credit Union and Chasing the Spectrum was sold to a private collector for their Ohio residence.

Turquoise Flora, fused glass and stainless steel, 30"w x 28"h. (right)

Barbara Westfall pictured with her award winning art, Chasing the Spectrum. (far right)

Top left: Barbara Westfall with staff from the University of Kentucky Credit Union.

Middle left: Barbara Westfall and Carl Johnson at ADC Fine Art Gallery at The Edge, Cincinnati.

Middle right: Barbara Westfall with award winning Turquoise Flora, fused glass and metal.

Bottom:

Chasing the Spectrum
Fused glass and metal
12"w x 40"h

